President's Message

I want to congratulate our trophy winners at Harrington, Wayne Turnpin and Karen Pope, and at the Street Survivors show at the Bakery Express, Joe and Doris Bouchat and Margaret Phaff. Great job! I also want to congratulate Virgil and Joan Graham on their grandson's promotion to Staff Sergeant in the Air Force. Junior was home earlier this summer, but now is back at his job in Fairbanks Alaska. What a great young man. I know his family is very proud of him, as our we. I would like to thank Rich Woolridge, President of the Street Survivors for donation of our yellow strobe light for our golf cart. Thank you to new members Andrew Beene, Chris Hughs, Joyce and Howard Sechelbe and Jack Schroeder for their help down on the Lot, as well as one of our former club presidents Jack Evans who also has helped out. Now a very BIG thank you to my two amigos, Tony Blair and Virgil Graham who helped to enlarge our fortapotty to make room for our newly acquired golf cart, AKA Virgil's Chariot! Thank you Jack Stephan for riding up to PA to pick out the golf cart with Tony and I. Thank you Tony for riding up with me the following week to pick it up! LOTS of thanks to all of our club members who support us and allow us to do the things we do to make our club better and our Lot easier to work. Thank you to Annapolis Car Show for their comment about us on our Facebook page, "Y-all do it right!". These kind of comments make it all worth it to us. Our greatest reward is knowing that everyone enjoys what we do. Don't forget our first fundraiser is August 30th, advertised as Gobble Gobble Day! This will help raise money for turkeys to purchase at Thanksgiving for local needy families. We will be charging $5 entrance fee to the Lot that night. No exceptions! The Lot will be open to ALL years cars and trucks. This is strictly a fundraiser and NOT a car show. There will be no awards. Please come out and help support us and help make a family Thanksgiving a truly thankful one.

P.S. God Bless and Support Our Troops and thank a Veteran.
"Freedom isn't Free".

Dennis Smith, President
